POLITICAL.—The Democratic National convention met last night for the purpose of receiving reports of committees appointed at a previous meeting to make arrangements for attending the parade in Washington on the night of the 26th instant. The reports, all being satisfactory, were adopted, and the host which has been chambered for the occasion will have the very wharf, in this city on Thursday night at seven o'clock, returning after the demonstration. The club will meet again at 10 o'clock night, and after transacting some business, will proceed to the lower room of Cameron and Thompson's saloon, adjoining St. John's Academy, where a democratic flag will be hoisted, and dedications in Hanover and back with music and speaking. The flag is to be thrown to the breeze from this place before it was prepared by the ladies of the neighborhood.

Messrs. Robert Hall, chief marshal, and B. H. Long, one of the aids, of the democratic parade in Washington, were in the city to day. They say that the route of process in the west part of the city, will be short and that the marshals will take place promptly at 10 o'clock, and that to order to participate in the parade the visitors from this city will have to leave town at least six o'clock. A resolution was introduced, so the parade is intended to be general, and will extend the distance of the Democratic Parade from the wharf to near the Alexandria and extend them into the line of procession.

James B. Bourne, major in Charge; Dr. M. M. Major Barker P. Lee, of N. York, and other congressional representatives will be on duty on Monday evening for the purpose of holding a political audience with a council on the Democratic Reception Club.

Captain John S. Wiles, of Richmond, a Marine officer, will not be here with H. H. Hollister on the 26th inst., owing to circumstances elsewhere, but it is understood that Capt. Bar will supply his place.

NOTING NEWS.—There was not a eve at police headquarters this morning.

John McIvy was arrested last night on a warrant issued by Justice Mather at the instance of Jefferson Hall, charging him with robbery and larceny by robbing a wagon from the mudbank about three years ago. He was released on bail for examination this morning while the defendant claimed that he had purchased the wagon from Hall and paid him $300. The charge was withdrawn and the case dismissed.

A colored woman, who lives on the Washington street, attended the circus in this city last evening, and lost her watch. To-day a colored man, John C. Arnold on suspicion of being the thief, was taken into custody to examine him, he was discharged. A warrant was issued to-day by Justice Mather for the arrest of a colored street beggar named Wilson, from Pittsburg.

THE MARKET.—The market this morning was abundantly supplied with vegetables and fruit. Cabbage appears to be on the wane, though they were not scarce. Peaches were abundant, though the most market come in damaged except for bacon and ham, which were more advanced considerably in consequence of a Chicago "corner." Bacon sold at 10 cents per pound; hams also at 15¢ per pound. The prices for other articles ranged from 10¢ to 25¢ per pound. Peaches, 40¢ per pound; peaches, apples, 10 to 20¢ per pound; oranges, 75¢ per pound; grapes, 40¢ per pound; melons, 10¢ per pound; watermelons, 8 to 25¢ per pound; corn, 10¢ per pound; tomatoes, 10¢ per pound; corn, 25¢ per dozen; lime, 6¢ per dozen; peaches, 25¢ per dozen; yellow Irish potatoes, 25¢ per pound; string beans, 10¢ per pound; catfish, 50¢ to 80¢ per head; fish, 10¢ to 20¢ per dozen; butter, 25¢ and 30¢ per pound; chickens, 25¢ to 35¢ each.

COMMERCIAL.—The receipts of grain shipped from the upper country have been large during the past few days. Premiums on the earl of wheat, collected from both ends of the Virginia Middle Railroad, the Kansas branch of that road, arrived yesterday, assigned to the merchant in this city, and the morning Union street was with ears filled with the golden grain, to prove that Virginia is not the State which would have the outside people believe, and that to-day her agricultural products are in a more propitious condition than ever have been at any time since the war.

WEATHER.—It has become necessary to commence the state of the weather. A violent gale was the highest point of the mercury in the thermometer, and the gales of the atmosphere indicated to believe that it was the warmest day of the year, and that they suffered accordingly, as though it was not the hottest day by comparison. To-day has been very sultry, and the shade, and "Old Tom," its stationary temperature.

ITEMS.—To-day was the time appointed, for launching the new steamer at the shipyard, but the vessel is still at the dock, and there is nothing to do but wait for her to remain for a day or two.

The New York steamer E. C. Knight is on her way to Europe, having been thoroughly overhauled and cleaned from Philadelphia.

BY HABIT.—The colored sailor, Henry Williams, mentioned in yesterday's Gazette, as having been received from the station house of the Custom House, and left without any means of subsistence, was, in the afternoon of his arrival, sent to the Custom House, and sent to his home in Norfolk.

ITEMS.—A day or two ago, while working in the garden of Mr. Thomas M. White, on Franklin street, he killed a large striped snake, 12 feet long. It was measured and found to be about the house.

THIS TELLS OF THE BEST SHOW

AS CARD TO THE PUBLIC.—On this my first visit to the State of Virginia I deem it proper to make a plain statement of a few facts relative to my exhibition. First, I come with the largest, best, most novel entertainment ever presented for your approval. I claim to have the finest display of thoroughbred horses the world has ever seen, taught to do the most impossible feats ever heard of; also the only Japanese and Indian show ever so thoroughly organized, while my troupe of Educated Dogs have no equal on the face of the globe. In the New York Aquarium will be found a captive world of rare representatives from old ocean's fathomless depths. In fact, I claim and do so without fear or favor to have the only exhibition of novel features ever in the State. I come among you with the most expensive show ever offered to the patrons of amusements in America. If the public expect managers to bring to their doors entertainments of this class, they must come out and give them their hearty support.
